The citizens of Hana are again without water. The streams are all dried up, and many people are obliged to drink brackish water.

Large catches of fish have been reported from many places. The fishermen at Lahaina getting an exceptionally large catch early this week.

Messrs. Copeland, Wells and Raymond, supervising principals from Maui, were passengers on the Mauna Kea last night to attend the meeting in Honolulu.

Manager Weinzeimer of the Pioneer Mill Company went over to Honolulu last Monday. He came back on the Wilhelmina Thursday evening, which stopped at Lahaina to put him ashore.

The Paia Orpheum is putting on a first class vaudeville show Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week. The Italian Saxophone quartet and the Waldstein trio, besides moving pictures.

The MacWalters quartet gave a very enjoyable concert at the Wailuku Orpheum last Saturday afternoon. The audience was quite large for a matinee, and all thoroughly appreciated the work of the artists. Perhaps the one which gave the most pleasure to his hearers was Mr. Thomas, the reader, and he was highly amusing in his selections.

The Puunene Athletic Club bowling team will play their third match with Kaui tonight. The Puunene team consists of W. E. Bal, Jr., W. S. Chillingworth, Frank Lufkin, C. E. Meyers and E. E. Deinert. Each club has won a match, and this will decide which has the better team. It is probable the Wailuku gymnasium team will challenge Kaui after this match.

At a meeting of the vestry of the Church of the Good Shepherd of the Wailuku Protestant Episcopal Church, Messrs. J. N. S. Williams and E. H. Hart were elected delegates to the tenth annual convocation to be held in Honolulu commencing on the 25th inst. If they cannot attend on account of pressure of business, the Rev. W. S. Short, rector, was authorized to nominate two alternates for appointment by the Bishop of this missionary district.

An instrumental and vocal concert will be given at the Orpheum, Wailuku, next Tuesday night, the proceeds are for the purpose of entertaining Bishop Willis in Honolulu whilst visiting these islands the latter part of this month. There will be solos and reading by the best talent on Maui. Mr. W. S. Chillingworth and his instrumental quintet, Wailuku Glee Club, Choir of the Church of the Good Shepherd, and four reels of New and Educational Story Pictures.

Rev. Frank S. Scudder of Honolulu will preach at the Kahului Church, Sunday morning, and at the Wailuku Union Church, Sunday evening. He comes to Maui accompanied by Mrs. Scudder, to attend the organization of the Wailuku Japanese Church at 2:30 on Sunday afternoon. Others who will assist in that organization will be Revs. R. B. Dodge, agent of the Hawaiian Board for Central Maui, and L. B. Kaumeheuiwa, pastor of the Kaahumanu Church, also Hon. John W. Kalua, representing the Committee of Nine of the Maui Evangelical Association.

"Of the military careers deriving romantic interest from the wars with Spain and the Filipinos, that of General Frederick Funston stands easily first," says a prominent reviewer of "Memories of Two Wars" that is in the Maui Library. The book is a narrative of his personal experience, and is written in a manner that will appeal especially to lovers of adventure and stories of hardship crowned at last by victory and fortune. It will probably be granted, even by the author, that for cold-blooded, though not cruel, trickery, as well as in its experiences of desperate hardships and persevering pluck, this crowning adventure of the Philippine war will not easily be surpassed by the story books in which thrills abound.

Locals

The schooner Honoipu is loading sugar at Hana. She will take on about 1000 tons of sugar.

Maui boys are making good on their school nines in Honolulu. Two of Treasurer Baldwin's boys are on the Punahou team as is also young Wadsworth. They are lining out the hits too.

The polo practice at Sunnyside is becoming more strenuous each week. Last Saturday afternoon the second team put up a great fight, and made the first team hustle all the time. This afternoon they will go at it again.

Mrs. Wm. Mossman stepped from a slowly moving auto at Kahului Monday evening. She was thrown to the ground, and quite severely shaken up. The doctors do not anticipate any serious consequences.

The Baseball Season.

Baseball opened up last Sunday, and a practice game was played in Wailuku between the Stars and the Kahuluis, and another game at Paia between the Camp One team and the Paia second team.

The game at Wailuku was very ragged, and the boys showed plainly their long layoff during the winter months. The Kahului team were unable to hit Bal to advantage at any stage of the game, while the slow twisters of Russell were knocked to all corners of the lot. The veteran George Cummings, was not in the Star line-up, and it looks as though George was going to be content to rest on the sidelines this year. The passing of this player from active work on the diamond is a genuine loss, because with him in the game, things must go with a snap. George was always full of ginger on the ball field, and he was a sterling player as well.

At Paia, the Camp One team defeated the Paia's by a score of 8 to 7 in a well played game.

The Stars and the Paia first team will play at Wailuku tomorrow, and the up country aggregation are reputed to be the real goods this year. The game tomorrow will be called at 3:30.

Opening New Theatre.

The new Puunene Theatre which has been under construction for some time, will be opened next Thursday evening, with a first-class vaudeville show. The new theatre will be under the management of H. B. Weller, and he proposes to give the patrons the best show obtainable. The building at Puunene was designed and built by Mr. C. E. Savage, head carpenter for the H. C. & S. Co., and reflects the well known ability of Mr. Savage along this line.

Besides the moving pictures Thursday evening, Mr. Weller has secured the Italian Saxophone quartet, which has had such a successful run at the Bijou Theatre, in Honolulu, together with the Waldstein trio of fancy roller skaters. Waldstein, Sr., is one of the oldest fancy skaters in America, and executes over 200 figures on the little wheels.
